

THE PILLAR OF LIGHT

Statement of Steven S. Showers, Founder

Messenger of the Pillar of Light

Declaration of Imminent Manifestation

On December 24, 2012, in an early morning vision, I was assigned the duty and responsibility to be the messenger of the Pillar of Light. This assignment did not take me by surprise in as much as I had been preparing for this day since at least 1986, see: The Lighthouse Keeper has Returned,<sup>1</sup> though I knew not the form the assignment was to take. But once having the assignment, from that auspicious day forward, the question has relentlessly loomed before me, as to exactly WHEN we could expect the Pillar of Light to appear. And I must admit to experiencing, over the last 30 months, a certain amount of ongoing agony in this gnawing ever-present question, ARE WE THERE YET? --- a question that never had a definite answer.

Early on, I was given the answer albeit in cryptic form. When the message is ready, the Pillar of Light will appear. But who decides when the message is ready? I have discovered, over time, after more than one false start, that it is not my role to decide when the message is ready, that God our Father and our Mother reserve to themselves this judgement.

However, with the lens of attunement in a more refined and highly polished state, I believe, I now have from THEM the signal that the message is now ready, inherent in this directive received, to publish this rather audacious declaration, as to the imminent manifestation of the Pillar of Light.

I can tell you, these four words, Declaration of Imminent Manifestation, came to me with clarity and force, a crystal clear vision event that showed me exactly where these four words wanted to go, right there, at the top of this website. And so, that's where I put them.

And so, finally, after more than 30 months of waiting, with the publication of the Statement of Purpose, June 24, 2015 (available at Romneys-Racist-Heart.com), against the backdrop of the background information published on December 25, 2014 (available at Romneys-Racist-Heart.com), and that against the full backdrop of the content of that website, Romneys-Racist-Heart.com, the message is ready, or least the first installment of the message.

Of course, the overall message that the Pillar of Light would give to the people of America, and the earth, is much larger than what these two documents, and this website overall currently contain. However, the much larger message that would be delivered, would have no meaning, would have no relevance, unless the first message is assimilated and acted upon by the American people. For surely, as the June 24, 2015 statement makes clear, "If you don't stop abortion, America will be destroyed." If the people don't heed this message, it is all over for America, and there is really nothing left to be said, but only tears of sorrow, not of joy, to shed. Yes, great hopes were vested in America, and her destruction will leave the universe itself stunned. If tears flowing upon the cheeks of angels make a sound, the entire universe may thunder for a time like unto Niagara Falls, but it will not be a sound wherein any kind of happiness can be discerned, only a roar of tragic sorrow it will be, a gigantic groan of solar pain if you will, one of the most unique and rare sounds ever to be heard among the countless and listening galaxies.

And that day looms upon us, for if the Republican Party does not end its entanglement with the forces of racism, there is no hope that the magnitude of political will necessary to end abortion in America can coalesce and find expression within existing constitutional processes. The future has this cloud of sorrow over it, for it is an open question whether the Republican Party can find the will to accomplish this long neglected internal house cleaning.

And in this regard, it will be interesting to see what impact the current Donald Trump spectacle has upon the Republican Party's posture in relationship to the issue of racism during the currently unfolding 2016 Presidential Campaign.

Note that the issue of racism in the Republican Party cannot be properly understood, confronted and dealt with unless the 1964 Goldwater Fiasco is also fully understood. In summary, at the very height of the cresting wave of Civil Rights progress being made in 1964, the Republican Party fielded a candidate for President, in Senator Barry Goldwater, who opposed the landmark Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the minority communities will never forget it, even though most Republicans have. If the reader is not aware of that important historical event, a summary is provided within the Pillar of Light Information Update, dated December 24, 2015, available on the Romneys-Racist-Heart.com website in both HTML and PDF format, under the subtitle, “THE RING OF FIRE, Racism Allegations Surrounding the Republican Party Since 1964.”

Donald Trump's (Republican) message to the Hispanic community, who are overwhelmingly pro-life, by the way, is that you have no value, and we don't want you here. The message of the Democrat Party is exactly the opposite. To the Hispanic community they say, you have value, we want you here. Of course, this is juxtaposed to a gigantic irony. Nevertheless, only some form of insanity would motivate a member of the Hispanic community to vote Republican in the upcoming election. And that is the hard truth that the Republican Party must deal with.

The outlook, in this regard, is not exactly bright. An article in the Washington Post for July 15, 2015 declares,

"Donald Trump's popularity has surged among Republicans after dominating several news cycles with his anti-illegal immigration rhetoric, according to a new Washington Post-ABC News poll." According to the Washington Post, the last poll that measured Trump's status within the Republican Party showed an unfavorable rating of 65%. In this poll, that unfavorable rating dropped to 40%, with his favorable rating surging to 57%. As the Post points out, that means nearly six in ten Republicans now look upon Donald Trump favorably. For six in ten Republicans, something within them resonates harmoniously with this racial hostility and insensitivity.

Make no mistake about it. The Mitt Romney voters are flocking to Trump's banner of racial hostility and insensitivity. Like their master Trump, they are totally unaware that we live in a new racial environment. This is the question. How long will it take for the "Two Donald" euphemism, in relationship to the Republican Party, to become indelibly anchored in the minds of the American people?

Whether America, as such, will have a history going forward, depends on whether the American people can muster the political will to coalesce the national constitutional majority required to end legal abortion in America once and for all. If

ON THE BRIGHT SIDE

With the appearance of the Pillar of Light, God our Father and Mother, I Am That I Am, will have made Newbury Park, and the greater Conejo Valley, into the #1 tourist destination on the planet. This will be accompanied by an unprecedented expansion of economic activity, wealth and abundance, and a corresponding rise of property values across the board.

that can't happen, America has no further (constructive) role to play in the divine plan of the earth. What does that mean? The Pillar of Light comes to reinforce conscience in this respect, making it clear, that this is no ordinary decision that the American people face in this hour. It is a life or death decision for the nation as a whole.

Surely there remains enough residual light within the collective consciousness of the American people for them to understand that a state of universal rebellion against the application of the Golden Rule to the fundamental relationships of society, cannot be allowed to continue.

Having been given one last opportunity, if the American people consciously choose the side of the Anti-Christ through an orderly democratic decision process, the heavenly host will have no choice, but to simply stand aside and allow the full brunt of the karmic storm now bearing down on America to make its full landfall. The outcome will be no less than a very large pile of rubble. And that will be the end of this once hopeful, but now very sad and tragic story. And the end of that story is potentially not far off. For mercy itself will accelerate the end once the people have made their choices.
